I resent the our discussion email. For some reason your server rejected it a few times. Did you receive and are you all set?

Thanks!

As a Florida native, I have seen my hometown of Jupiter expand, grow and develop with time. I now watch this trend from a front row seat as a member of Jupiter Town Council.

Comcast has been a major component in Jupiter's business and technological development over the past several years. I am writing today to voice my support for the Comcast and Time Warner Cable transaction because it has the potential to greatly benefit many communities like ours. I strive to preserve Jupiter's unique coastal-style of living while providing top-notch innovation and commodities for our residents.

Comcast provides Jupiter's citizens the high-quality entertainment services they want without having to move to a large city. This kind of quality of service is what Jupiter deserves and what makes Comcast a leader in the industry.

In my professional life, I spent several years on Wall Street interacting with other business executives prior to returning to Jupiter. Currently I specialize in public-private partnerships that enable our community to grow. It is no small feat that Comcast has invested over $6 billion in infrastructure and technology improvements in Florida since 1996. Comcast's investment demonstrates the benefits of having a major cable provider serve our town. It means that small and medium-sized businesses have the opportunity to flourish. With Comcast Business, companies of all sizes can access broadband connections with speeds that continue to increase.

In addition, Comcast has invested in our community. The company is working to close the digital divide and make broadband affordable for low-income residents, something that sets it apart from other companies.

The Internet Essentials program is a prime example. For qualified families with one or more children receiving free school lunches, Comcast makes high-speed broadband services available for the reduced price of just under $10 a month. The greater adoption of broadband Internet in the Florida area and nationwide will allow our communities to prosper.

Comcast's commitment to Florida is strong. The transaction with Time Warner Cable will enable Comcast to become a better company and extend its positive reach to many others.
